

PRESS THE LOSER

"THE LOSER is the culmination of madness and humor!" La Stampa, Turin

"Matteo Galbusera encloses today, in the present, outside the stylistic features of classicism, the very essence of great clowning: overturning the usual rules of society to seek a deeper, liberating dimension of the human being, where we can even laugh at defeats" Circusnews.it

"Matteo Galbusera, with his crazy and original "The Loser" has conquered the packed audience of Corte Vittoria with its irrepressible and extravagant personality and its hilarious comedy. Despite the title, an evening of extraordinary entertainment and fun...definitely winning!" Corriere del Veneto

"THE LOSER is a success!

Matteo Galbusera dragged the audience into a whirlwind of non-sense, music and laughter. THE LOSER has been a great success in Europe and Asia and embodies the beauty and poetry of an art very difficult to develop despite the comic tones and the extraordinary ability of the artist to make it look simple" La Nuova Venezia

"THE LOSER is a pure clown show at its very best, fundamentally stupid, deeply funny, with its share of acrobatics to fool yourself on the floor and its insignificant special effects; each nonsense being more hilarious than the previous one. We swim in the most total absurdity - and we want more, so much the actor knows how to embark us in a sincerely enjoyable schoolboy universe. And it feels so good!" Scenes de Rue _ France

"At the Festival Tutti Matti per Colorno shows and artists arrived in large numbers from all over the World. The funniest was Matteo Galbusera who, after his experience in Canada with Cirque Du Soleil, returns to Italy with his "The Loser," a surrealist demential comedy show capable of making even the most severe audience gasp with laughter."
